as an example of heroic and skillful struggle in skerry and insular areas. In honor of the victory the Church of St. Panteleimon was raised. Opposite the church is the house of Zarembo (professor, the director of the Saint Petersburg conservatoire). In 1944-1956 a part of the rented apartment house was restored. The end facade turned into a memorial tablet seen from Fontanka embankment. The bas-relief with marine symbolism, superimposed inscriptions and banners is four storey high. At that same time the plot of the adjacent territory was improved.

Furnished rooms of E.A. Shobert:

- In 1865 there lived Tchaikovsky (1840-1893) – composer.
- 1871-1872 – N.A. Rimsky-Korsakov (1844-1908) – composer, conductor.
- 1871-1872 – M.P. Mussorgsky (1839-1881) – composer.
