Building historical background:

Rented apartment house and baths of Y.S. Yegorov.

Architect: Pavel Yulievich Syuzor.

In 1875. In 1875 Yegorov received the Saint Petersburg municipal council’s permission to build the house. Pavel Yulievich Syuzor was honored with a gold medal at the exhibition in Vienna.

In autumn 1879 a Saint Petersburg newspaper “Golos” announced that the Yegorovskiye baths were open for callers.

In 1993 the baths house closed.

In 1994 the baths house was rearranged. By the end of the year first callers were received. In 1995 a hairdressing salon was opened, manicure and pedicure rooms and a solarium. Today it is a modern bath complex with a swimming pool, deluxe suites and common class baths. Open around the clock.

– Mendeleev? Yeah, sure I know it. Your paint remover helped me a lot while I was cleaning the Smolny cathedral. The whole facade was cleaned.

– How long have our products been familiar to you?

– Quite a long time already. Since 2001.

– Do you know a lot of our products?

– Well, yes. I restored the whole Vosstaniya St. with your products. So, quite a wide range of products came in my way.

– Thanks.
